GOOD TICKET NAMED CONFEDERATES MEET

Republicans at Louisville Selected Their Men.

Colonel T. J. Smith is Not Thinking of Resigning—Hogan Jury Couldn't Agree.

NO YACHT RACE TODAY

NOMINATED GOOD TICKET.

Louisville, Sept. 1.—A splendid ticket was nominated by the Republicans here last night. The principal nominees are:

Chancellor, First division—George Durrelle.

Chancellor, Second—Temple Bodley.

Judge common pleas, First division—John Marshall.

Judge common pleas, Second—Morton V. Jones.

Judge common pleas, Third—R. E. Woods.

Judge criminal division—Henry L. Stone.

Commonwealth's attorney—Alfred Selligman. Clerk circuit court—Theophilus Stern.

State senator for Thirty-seventh district—Charles F. Ogden.

Representatives Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth and Fifty-first districts—Fred Blake, Armin Stein, Harry Smith, Hill Spalding, Robert L. Harris, Thomas Ryans and Hugh Ellis.

COOL SMITH TO REMAIN.

Frankfort, Sept. 1.—Adjutant-General Murray today denied the story that Colonel T. J. Smith, of the Third Kentucky regiment had resigned. "Colonel Smith has not resigned," he said, "nor is he thinking of it."

COULDN'T AGREE.

Shepherdsville, Sept. 1.—The jury in the Hagan-Jones case failed to agree and was discharged. Nine jurors were for conviction and three for acquittal. The case comes up again in December.

NO YACHT RACES TODAY.

New York City, Sept. 1.—The yacht races have been called off on account of no wind.

LE COMPTE IS SOLD

HE WILL GO TO MILWAUKEE AT ONCE TO PLAY.

The "fans" of Paducah will regret to learn that Willie LeCompte, the popular short stop, and one of the best and steadiest members of the Paducah club, or in any minor league, has been sold to Milwaukee, of the American Association. The deal was completed today, and it is understood the Paducah association got $200 for LeCompte. He has been here with an injured finger for several days past, and out of the game, and will probably leave tonight to join Milwaukee at Columbus, O., and play out the remainder of the season. This is the club that bought Hedges, the Paducah pitcher, early in the season. LeCompte has many friends and admirers in Paducah who expect to see him in still faster company in a year or two.

LICENSED TO MARRY.

Clark Powers, of St. Louis, age 21 and Annie James, of Livingston county, age 19, have been licensed to wed. It will make the first marriage of both.

K. D. Snell needs to E. Martens for $1 and other consideration, property in the Worthen addition.

Committees Will Report This Evening at Called Session.

The Site Has Been Approved by Gen. Bragg—Capt. J. V. Greif's Story.

EVENTS OF FORTY-ONE YEARS

A meeting of the Confederate Veteran Camp of Paducah will be held this evening at the city hall for the purpose of hearing reports from various committees.

These reports may be of unusual importance. The soliciting committee, one of the most important appointed, will make a report. It will be necessary to have $2,500 at least, to hold the reunion, and at last accounts the committee was doing well, and had several hundred dollars.

The committee on a site will report that their selection of the fair grounds has been approved by Gen. Bragg, which insures the reunion's being held there.

The transportation committee will report that the railroads and steamboats have made rate of one fare for the reunion.

A number of other committees may be appointed tonight and a large attendance is expected.

Adj. J. V. Greif, of the local camp, was in a reminiscent mood when a reporter dropped in today.

"I was just thinking," he said, "that today forty-one years ago I entered the penitentiary at Alton, Ill. Yes, on August 27th 1862, seven others and I were captured at Purdy, Tenn., and taken to Bethel Springs, from there to Jackson, thence to Cairo and to Alton. We had to change cars at Pana Station, Ill., however, and we prisoners were given the freedom of the city by the guards.

We went to the hotel, had all we could eat, drink or smoke, played billiards and pool and rolled ten pins, and had a jolly good time, not a cent would any one take from any of us.

"We had to stay there twelve hours, and left later for the penitentiary at Alton, where we were received into the penitentiary, all of us feeling pretty full, and where we remained three months as prisoners of war."

WAS TOO HASTY

Keeper of a Public House Used too Much Force.

Cases in Police Court That Were Heard by Judge Sanders.

The case against Henry Steinbrecker and his wife and George Hall, for a breach of the peace alleged to have been committed on South Second street, was heard by Judge Sanders today. It seems that Hall had a drunken man and attempted to take him into Steinbrecker's, which is a boarding house. The proprietor objected and in the wrangle that ensued there was quite a fight, Hall getting the worst of it. He was rapped on the head by Steinbrecker with a club and by Mrs. Steinbrecker, was defending her husband, with a chair. Hall did nothing that justified a fine, while Steinbrecker was fined $10 and costs and his wife dismissed.

Will Holden and Lulu Reed, colored, were charged with a breach of the peace and fined $15 and $5 and costs respectively.

The case against Charles Bryson, colored, charged with assaulting E. N. Nelson, colored, and breaking his arm was continued.

Charles Smith, charged with a breach of the peace, was granted a continuance.

M. E. Raysinger was taxed $1 and trimmings for a plain drunk.

A BOY IN SUMMER TIME.

(By McCutcheon, in Chicago Daily Tribune.)

"You bet this is the last time I'm gonna come to visit Aunt Mary, not even if she invites me."

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

Regular Session to be Held This Evening.

A Number of Improvements Have Been Made About the Buildings.

SCHOOL OPENS SEPT. 14.

Tonight the school board will meet for the last time prior to the opening of the public schools, but there will be little business to transact.

Superintendent Hatfield will make a routine report of the condition of the buildings, etc., and will also suggest matters of improvement to be acted on before the opening of the schools.

School will begin on the 14th of the month and on the preceding Friday and Saturday the teachers will be called together for instructions in methods, etc. Superintendent Hatfield will act as instructor and will have several new ideas, the result of observations in other schools in the state and other states.

There are a number of improvements going on about the schools. The boys and girls yards at the High school have been separated by a high fence and the desks for two new rooms in that school are being screwed down today. The desks are of the finest quality. At the Longfellow school a new idea of ventilation is being carried into effect. The four big furnaces heretofore used separately have now been consolidated into one battery and will furnish heat for the entire building. The fresh air will come in through the top of the building and will be carried over the furnaces by an electric fan which will regulate the supply so accurately that the temperature will be at 70 degrees at all times in the rooms. This is the latest scheme in ventilating and will prove successful beyond a doubt.

There are other improvements going on of minor importance and all will be completed by the time school opens. Superintendent Hatfield is already receiving many callers at his office and has issued entrance cards for many children. He thinks the attendance will be larger this year than any previous year.

ANOTHER BOOM

SALE OF TOWN LOTS TO BE HELD AT KEVIL.

The town of Kevil, on the Cairo extension of the I. C., is on the boom again and on the 23d of this month another public auction sale of lots will be held. At present several small residences and business houses are going up and a $4,000 brick hotel is also being built. A big well is being dug at the depot to supply the residents with water but will not be finished for some time. The method of digging the well created much interest among the excursionists who went to Cairo Sunday and stopped off at Kevil a few minutes en route.

FELL ON A NAIL—Mr. C. C. Lee, the wallpaper dealer, fell in his store yesterday and stuck a nail through his left hand. Carpenters have been at work in the store at Third and Court and left a few nails about on the floor. The injury is quite painful.

WILL HAVE FLAGMAN IS IN A BAD SHAPE

Two Railroads and Street Car Company to Install One.

He Will Protect the Crossings Near the I. C. Passenger Depot.

APPOINTMENT OF MR. GRIMES

The I. C. and N. O. and St. L. roads in conjunction with the Paducah City Railway Co., will shortly put in a flagman at the crossing of the two railroads and street car line at the union depot in the Little Addition.

This matter has been before the council several times, but no definite action had ever been taken, the city officials hoping the roads would see the necessity of such an officer without having the matter pointed out by the city. The officials of the roads and street car company have been considering the matter for some time and it is said have reached an agreement to install a flagman, to be paid by the railroads and street car company jointly. This will be a great improvement and teamsters and pedestrians will feel safer in crossing the tracks after the flag station has been installed.

Master Mechanic T. F. Barton arrived this morning from Chicago and appointed Mr. B. F. Feeney traveling engineer to succeed Mr. Grimes.

Mr. Feeney is a young man and has the reputation of being one of the best engineers in the employ of the I. C. He has worked on different branches of the road and as an engineer can not be excelled. He has run on the road in the freight service principally and his many friends here will be pleased to learn of his deserved promotion.

The official notice of the appointment of Traveling Engineer Lloyd Grimes to the office of trainmaster of Paducah district, Louisville division, was last night posted in all trainmen quarters on the division, and Mr. Grimes has assumed charge of his new office. Mr. King Johnson, formerly Trainmaster T. A. Banks clerk, who also acted under Trainmaster Sheridan, will be retained in the office as chief clerk.

MONTHS WORK

The Police Made Many Arrests Here.

Patrol Wagon Traveled 235 Miles—Stamp Deputy's Report.

The total number of arrests for last month was 129, a small advance over previous month. As August 8 and a number of other things, such as show day, might have added considerably to the above number, and did not, the indications are that Paducah is unusually good. The arrests were made for the following causes: Breach of the peace, 55; horse stealing, 1; drunk, 28; drunk and disorderly, 7; grand larceny, 2; suspects, 3; housebreaking, 1; robbery, 1; concealed weapons, 3; malicious cutting, 5; procuring a revolver at another 2; immorality, 6; malicious shooting, 1; snuffing gaming, 2; using insulting language, 2; breach of ordinance, 4; jail breaking, 1; attachment, 1; obtaining money under false pretenses, 1; disorderly conduct, 1; fugitive from justice, 1; and malicious assault, 1; total, 129.

The patrol wagon during the past month covered 235 miles. It is in much demand, and its courteous driver, Officer John Anstin, is always on hand to see that it is properly handled.

Stamp Deputy Louis Peabody has finished his report for the past month. Collections amounted to $5,239.87 with stamps issued for 726 barrels of whiskey.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Herdy left for Evansville to visit.

Mrs. Cox Prostrated and Cannot be Seen.

No Traces of Poison Found in the Dead Man's Stomach by Chemists.

EXAMINING TRIAL TOMORROW.

Mrs. William Cox, of Benton, who is in jail charged with murdering her husband by giving him morphine, is at the point of prostration, and her attorneys have forbidden her speaking to any one, on advice of physicians.

According to Attorneys Oliver and Oliver, who have been employed to defend Mrs. Cox, W. R. Burtram, who conducted a blind tiger with Cox and his wife, purchased ten grains of morphine at Wilson's drug store on Thursday morning which caused a suspicion to be cast on Mrs. Cox, whom Burtram had been in love with, it is said. Cox had been ill of chills and was in bed Friday morning early when he was taken with a smothering spell. His wife ran across the street and secured aid from the neighbors who returned home as soon as Cox had gotten better. About noon the patient had another smothering spell and again did his wife run across to secure aid. Cox was unconscious by the time they returned and remained so until death, which came in the afternoon about 3 o'clock. Dr. O. E. Howard was with him when he died and stated that the pulse beat at least four times after all signs of breathing had disappeared.

The doctors and druggists here who analyzed the stomach of the dead man, failed to find the slightest sign of any kind of poison.

The theory of suicide is thought to be the only solution to the man's death, if he died any other than a natural death, as he had threatened to kill himself. Dr. Howard was administering medicine to Cox for chills Thursday when the latter remarked that he need not exercise so much care because he was going to kill himself, but "before he did he would send another man before him." He did not mention who he meant but it is supposed he meant Burtram.

The attorneys think the fact that Burtram bought morphine signifies nothing as he had often done this before, according to the druggist who stated that he had sold Burtram morphine before.

The examining trial of the accused will come up at Benton tomorrow and the woman will be taken back. There is at present evidence against the accused. Burtram's son, Jordan Burtram, has also been arrested on suspicion of having had something to do with the alleged poisoning.

TO TOUR THE WORLD.

MR. GEORGE SMITH TO START SHORTLY FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

Mr. George Smith, the well known Louisville violinist, has secured an excellent position in an English syndicate concert company and will start out October 1st from San Francisco to tour the world.

The young violinist is well known here having taught a school here and also having made this his home for more than a year, working with Prof. Harry Gilbert, the pianist. He will start out and from San Francisco will go to Hawaii then to Australia and South Africa and then to France, Germany and England, returning home from England. His work with the violin has been highly complimented all over the United States where he has toured and he created a sensation in a big dramatic company last season in the role of a young violin player, taking much of the interest and attraction away from the star members of the cast. His many friends here will be pleased to learn of his rapid progress.

Misses Nellie and Sallie H. Hannan, of Clifton, are visiting their brother, Ed D. Hannan, of Paducah, and before returning will visit friends in Illinois. —Courier-Journal.

THE FOX AND THE STORK.

Plot Another Fox.

A fox one day invited a stork to dine with him, and, wishing to be amused at his expense, put the soup which he had for dinner in a large flat dish; so that, while he himself could lap it up quite well, the stork could only dip in the tips of his long bill. Some time after the stork, bearing his treatment in mind, invited the fox to take dinner with him. He, in his turn, put some minced meat in a long narrow-necked vessel, into which he could easily put his bill, while master fox was forced to be content with licking what ran down the sides of the vessel. The fox then remembered his old trick, and could not but admit that the stork had well paid him out.

MORAL: It is mighty imprudent, as well as inhuman and unkind, to affront anybody, and whoever takes the liberty to exercise his witty talent that way must not think much of it if he meets with reprisals.

SEPT. WEATHER

Forecast of Prophet Foster for the Coming Month.

All Kinds of Bad Disturbances Predicted For Month.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 1.—Last bulletin forecasts warm wave 1 to 5, cool wave 4 to 8.

Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about 7, great central valleys 9, eastern states 11. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about 10, great central valleys 12, eastern states 14. This disturbance will cause a very cool period north and a very warm period south. About the time it crosses the Mississippi river its force will greatly increase and it will become a dangerous storm.

A southern or tropical storm may join with it in the Ohio valley or a little further east and then you would better keep close to safe quarters for it will be a dangerous, destructive storm probably reaching its greatest force on the Atlantic and on the northern Atlantic steamship route about 12. From September 4 to 10 all parts of the world will be disturbed by great storms and weather extremes. During this period, and particularly about 7 and 11, electrical storms will occur disturbing telegraphic and telephonic communication.

Temperature of the week ending September 7 will average above normal in the southwest and rainfall below. In the north and northeast temperature will average below and rainfall above.

Immediately following date of this bulletin comparatively quiet weather will prevail. I say comparatively quiet for you need not expect much really quiet weather.

NEW WAY TO EXTERMINATE COCK-ROACHES AND WATER BUGS

A woman reader writes, asking for a way to get rid of cockroaches, and we are glad to tell her that she can exterminate them completely by the use of Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste. Druggists and grocers generally have this excellent article in stock, and the manufacturers are so sure that it will kill off cockroaches, water bugs, rats, mice, etc., that they offer one hundred dollars reward to any one who doesn't find it successful. If you cannot get the paste of your dealer, write direct to the Stearns' Electric Paste Co., Chicago, Ill., and on receipt of price they will forward you the goods by express prepaid. It is easy to use, and absolutely reliable. Small size, 25c.; large size, eight times the quantity, $1.00.

Woman Professor Makes Name. It is announced that Mrs. Anna R. Bourne, the only woman professor connected with Kentucky university, at Lexington, Ky., will resign her position at the end of the present collegiate year. She has charge of the department of history, and has the reputation of being a very efficient instructor.

WOOD TO RUN

Will Accept the Nomination for Governor.

The Labor and People's Party Convention to be Held Sept. 16.

James D. Wood, of Central City, state president of the United Mine Workers, will accept the nomination for Governor on the ticket that is to be put out by the United Labor party and the Allied People's party.

The convention of the United Labor party and the Allied People's party will be held at Louisville on the morning of September 16. The sessions will be called to order by J. A. Parker, president of the Allied People's party, formerly of Paducah. There is little contest over the office of permanent chairman and Mr. Parker will likely be elected to preside. The purpose of the convention is to put a ticket in the field for state offices at the coming November election.

RETURNS TO BOWLING GREEN.

MR. JOHN FENWICK PURCHASES BIG FOUNDRY.

Mr. John Fenwick, who has been superintendent of the steam heating work here since it was started about a year ago, returned last night from Bowling Green, where he yesterday closed the deal for one of the largest foundries in the state, that of Brown and Oelbourn. He had been after it for two years but had never been able to arrange a satisfactory sale until yesterday.

Mr. Fenwick will remain in Paducah in his present position with the heating company until the work is all complete, and he will then return to Bowling Green to take charge of his plant, which will be known as the Bowling Green Machine company. He will at once put in new machinery, run it by electric power and make the foundry one of the largest to be found in this section of the country. He will have the best wishes of scores of the many friends he has made in Paducah since he took up his residence here.

PAINFUL BURNS.

LITTLE GIRL'S CLOTHING OATCHES FIRE FROM MATCHES.

The five year old daughter of Mrs. W. R. Teel, of 420 South Ninth street, was playing with matches late yesterday afternoon when her clothing caught fire. Her screams brought in her mother, who was in the next room, and the child's burning garments were torn away in time to prevent serious injuries. Mrs. Teel's hands were painfully burned in her efforts to extinguish the flames. Dr. B. B. Grithth was called to attend them.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup

An Ideal Family Medicine

When any member of the family begins to droop, loses appetite and shows signs of failing strength, you know that it means some disorder of the liver, kidneys, stomach, bowels or blood, and that a long, serious illness, much suffering and big doctors' bills are sure to follow unless some preventive is used at once.

Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup—"The Road to Good Health"—is the greatest safeguard you can provide for the health of your family. It combines those qualities sought in an ideal family medicine—a pure liver regulator, the best kidney medicinal, a perfect blood purifier and a powerful tonic. It does not help one organ at the expense of another, but regulates and strengthens all and causes them to act in perfect harmony.

Physicians recommend and prescribe it for disorders of the liver, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, kidney trouble, dropsy, catarrh, rheumatism, blood and skin diseases; while thousands of families have no other doctor.

MR. LEE DEAN, Antioch, I. T., says in a recent letter:

"This is to let you know that we have used your Liver and Blood Syrup in our family for the past two years and it is our only medicine and doctor."

W. S. GRAY, an aged citizen of Grapson, Ala., writes:

"I find that your medicine is pure, gentle, efficacious and inexpensive. It is good for the children, excellent for ladies, convenient for business men. It stands ahead of all the medicine made and is the cheapest that one can buy."

Gentle and thorough in its actions, it is as good for the children as it is for grown folks. Just a small dose each day when you don't feel well will cleanse your system of all impurities, fortify it against disease and fill you with a vim and vigor before unknown.

Ask your dealer for it today. Dry form 25 cents. Liquid form 50 cents and $1.00. Send us two-cent stamp for sample bottle and write our Consultation Department for free, confidential advice.

MRS. M. V. TUCKER, McKinney, Texas, says:

"I have been using Dr. Thacher's Remedies in my family for twelve years and think I cannot get a medicine that will be as satisfactory as your Liver and Blood Syrup (Dry)."

MRS. E. A. SPELMAN, Anderson, S. C., says:

"I have successfully used Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup and do not hesitate to recommend it as a valuable family medicine. I would not like to be without it in the house."

THE BIG STATE FAIR

Will Draw Thousands to Owensboro Sept. 21st to 26th.

$20,000 in cash Premiums and Many of the Country's Best Amusement Shows Free.

LOW RAILROAD RATES

The biggest state fair ever held south of the Ohio river will be opened at Owensboro, the bustling little Western Kentucky city, on Monday, September 21, lasting throughout the week. Cash premiums amounting to over $20,000 will be distributed for the best exhibits of agricultural products, mining products and livestock, fowls, pigeons, hares and the handicraft of the women of Kentucky or of other states. There will be the finest free amusement shows that the country affords for fair purposes, including many feats of daring never before seen in this state.

In fact, the state fair will be almost on the proportions of a great exposition and those who win premiums may well feel proud of the honor, besides the financial benefits derived.

SOME OF THE PREMIUMS.

$5,400 for beef cattle.
$1,600 for dairy cattle.
$1,200 for horses.
$800 for mules and jack stock.
$1,200 for swine.
$1,300 for sheep.
$1,000 for poultry, pigeons and Belgian hares.
$750 for women's department.
$4,000 for other exhibits.

SOME OF THE FREE ATTRACTIONS.

The famous Dr. Carver.
Broncho John's wild west show.
High diving bicycle rider.
Harnessed ostrich races.
Horse racing—no betting.
Football for state championship.
Exhibition of educated horses, champion oak walker of the world.
Kurkamp's fine military band concerts.

Dare Devil Schryer, the world renowned high diver, will appear every afternoon in his wonderful high dive bicycle act, the first time ever presented in the state. He rides down a steep incline 60 feet above ground at the lower end, jumps from his wheel and dives into a shallow tank 103 feet from the base of the chute. This is one of the most thrilling and dangerous feats ever enacted by any person. This attraction alone is worth twice the price of admission to the fair.

A Man of Simple Tastes.

"Did you enjoy your trip abroad?"
"Yes," answered Mr. Oumrox; "but I must say I missed the kind of cooking I'm used to."
"Couldn't you get anything you wanted?"

"Possibly. But you see mother and the girls hadn't taken the trouble to learn the French for pork and beans."

PADUCAH, KENTUCKY

TRUSTEES' SALE IN BANKRUPTCY.

District Court of the United States for the Western District of Kentucky. In the matter of Wiley & Ogilvie and J. B. Wiley and E. Y. Ogilvie, bankrupts.

Pursuant to a decree of Emmet W. Bagby, one of the referees in bankruptcy of the said district court, made in this proceeding on the 26th day of August, 1903, I shall, on Monday, September 14, 1903, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, on the premises, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on a credit of six months, at or near Maxon Mill, in McCracken county, Kentucky, the following described lands, to wit:

Beginning at the northeast corner of a certain tract or parcel of land, lying on the Paducah and Cairo road, in McCracken county, Kentucky, corner to Walters, in Dr. Burrows' line; thence with Dr. Burrows' line N. 74 W. 4 poles to the I. O. railroad right of way; thence with said right of way S. 88 1-4 W. 77 1-2 poles to the line of the Paducah and Cairo gravel road; thence S. 20 W. with said road 50 feet; thence with the I. O. railroad right of way S. 88 1-4 W. 79 1-5 poles to a stake in Waro's line; thence with said line S. 18 W. 119 poles to a stake, corner to Waro's place in Rives' line; thence with said line of Rives S. 86 E. 48 poles to the center of gravel road; thence with said road N. 44 E. 59 4-5 poles; thence with said road N. 20 E. 1 1-5 poles to Collier's corner; thence with Collier's line S. 73 1-3 E. 10 2-5 poles to another corner of Collier's; thence with Collier's line S. 18 W. 13 poles and 4 links to another corner of Collier's, in Dr. Kimbrough's line; thence with said line S. 73 1-2 E. 19 poles and 16 links to the corner of Kimbrough; thence with Kimbrough's line S. 19 W. 29 poles to a stake, corner to Kimbrough, in Howell's line; thence with Howell's line S. 86 E. 6 1-5 poles to a rock, corner to Howell and Young; thence with said Young's line S. 73 1-2 E. 43 3-5 poles to a stake in said Young's line to a corner to Walters'; thence with Walters' line N. 18 E. 149 poles to the beginning, containing 117 1-2 acres.

About one-half of said land lies on the north side of the Paducah and Cairo gravel road and about one-half on the south side of said road, and said parcels will be offered separately and as a whole, to be sold so as to realize the largest amount for said estate. The purchaser of said land will be required to give bond with good security, approved by the trustee, and a lien will be reserved on same to secure the payment of the purchase price. Possession of said land will be given the purchaser on or before the 1st day of January, 1904.

By order of court herein made said land will be sold free from all incumbrances, any liens thereon, if any, to attach to the proceeds of said sale in the order in which they are entitled or may be hereafter adjudged.

Witness my hand this the 27th day of August, 1903.

Were We Willing.

A manufacturer in the west of England, anxious that his hands should keep Christmas in a proper spirit, told them that if they went to church on that day they should receive their wages just the same as if they had been at work. Shortly after the address a deputation of solemn-faced employees waited upon their chief. "We're v'ry glad to attend church," said the spokesman; "and if you can see your way to payin' us overtime, we're willin' to attend the Methodist chapel in the evening."

FREE FACE BLEACH FOR COMPLEXION

I WILL SEND FREE TRIAL BOTTLE OF MY FACE BLEACH TO ANY LADY SENDING NAME AND ADDRESS.

MME. A. RUPPERT, 6 E 14TH ST., New York City

How to Obtain a Lovely

COMPLEXION

Clear and Beautiful

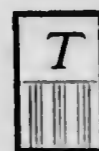

It is every woman's duty to be as youthful and good looking as possible, and there is nothing which adds more beauty than a lovely complexion, and there is no remedy which will restore the complexion and give one that youthful appearance like Mme. A. Ruppert's World Renowned Face Bleach. This grand remedy clears the skin of every discoloration, and impurity, including pimples, freckles, moth patches, brown spots, liver marks, comedones, flesh-worms, blackheads, oiliness, sallowness, muddiness and skin diseases. It accomplishes these wonderful effects by drawing the impurities and discolorations to the surface of the skin and then removing these blemishes by gradually soiling off a slight surface of the outer scarf skin. It does this in so natural a manner as to be entirely harmless to the most delicate complexion, and, having this action, it cannot fail to produce excellent effects.

Most marvelous results are obtained when Face Bleach is used according to my new Special Directions in conjunction with my Egyptian Balm, which nourishes and feeds the tissues and glands of the skin, and adds the finishing touch which refines, purifies and preserves the skin in its pristine splendor, giving it the glow of youth.

Now, in order that every lady reader of this paper may obtain the highest possible effect from the use of my preparations, I will make the following stupendous offer to all callers at the below address. A bottle of my Face Bleach, a trial jar of my Egyptian Balm, a bar of my most exquisite Almond Oil Complexion Soap, my New Special Directions, my book, "HOW TO BE BEAUTIFUL"—all for $2. The price of Face Bleach alone is $2 per bottle, hence you receive articles absolutely free.

DEMOCRACY'S FLIGHT.

No wonder pious Democracy in Kentucky occasionally indulges in a tiny bit of stealing! It unrolls not only from Republicans, but from Democracy itself as well. This ought to be no cause for wonder, however, when we consider the state of affairs exemplified by the alleged frauds in the state primary in this district last May. One Democratic candidate for several months has been trying to prevent the use of a nomination by another candidate who is alleged to have obtained the nomination by fraud, and the first named candidate has been beaten five times in his effort to enforce honest methods.

The candidate who has secured the nomination did it at least in a questionable way, and in accepting it he willfully becomes the beneficiary of any fraud that might have been committed. His opponent claims that the result was determined by ballot box stuffing, and whether or not the successful candidate knew anything about it, he is now the sole beneficiary of it.

Nevertheless, five times has he effectively vanquished his opponent, despite the allegations and proof of fraud. What's the matter with Democracy anyhow?

The man who says he was robbed was beaten in the primary, at least to all intents and purposes. He was next beaten in the mandamus suit of his opponent to compel one member of the committee to sign the certificate of nomination, was beaten in the injunction suit to prevent the committee from issuing a certificate of nomination to his opponent, was beaten in the contest before the committee, and finally he was defeated in his suit to enjoin the secretary of state and others from placing the name of his opponent under the Democratic device on the ballots—three times in the courts of his own county. This leaves a defeated Democrat with nothing to do but give up or run independently.

and is apparently a sad commentary on Democracy. If he does the former it will mean the triumph of fraud; if the latter, the probable defeat of both the Democratic nominee and the independent candidate, in which event the party would be beaten as a result of the dishonesty within its ranks. No wonder Democracy is degenerating in Kentucky when a set of out throat politicians can steal every state office from the men legally elected by a vote of nearly 200,000 citizens, work every kind of graft imaginable to the detriment of the people, keep the records from the public to conceal their rascality, and in addition imprison men of an opposite political faith and convict them of crime by packed juries, perjury, and partisan courts,—and yet no justice be found for them!

No wonder Democracy in Kentucky is doomed when one Democrat can win a nomination from another by stuffing a ballot box and then defeat his much abused opponent three successive times in the courts of the latter's own county! With the Republicans unable to get any of Democracy's unscrupulous state political thefts higher than Democracy's partisan courts, and Democrats unable to get redress for fraud against Democrats, the worst element of the Democratic party seems to have things its own way in Kentucky just now.

Well, well, wouldn't that jar you! The Democratic city committee has collected nearly $600 for the city primary, and the expenses of the primary will be about as follows: Precinct officers and rent, $130; printing $43.50; incidentals $20; total $193.50. This leaves nearly $400 in the hands of the committee. It may be well for these Democratic candidates for nominations to ask why they were gouged in such a manner. Many of them are hard working men who have no money to throw away, and as only about one out of three can be nominated it looks pretty hard that all have to submit. They have a right to know what the money was collected for if it wasn't needed, and should demand to know. It is probable that never in the history of local Democracy was such an outrage perpetrated on the candidates by the city committee, which had no legal or moral right to collect from them under the pretense of securing funds for holding a primary, $400 more than was necessary.

"I intended to vote the Democratic ticket," declared a prominent man today, "but after the Powers verdict I've changed my mind. I don't believe there was ever any conspiracy to kill Goebel, and don't believe that Powers had anything to do with Goebel's death. I don't believe he deserves to be hanged, and as it is claimed if the Republicans are elected this fall it will mean justice for the alleged conspirators, I'm going to vote for the Republicans."

The farcical trial and conviction of Caleb Powers has not increased the respect in which the Democratic party in Kentucky is held by outsiders. Says the Globe-Democrat: "It was an unfortunate day for Caleb Powers when he was elected secretary of state in Kentucky, where the Goebel revolutionists and enemies of free government are more powerful than the ballot, and where Goebel juries, solidly Democratic, condemn a man to the gallows for being a Republican."

Tom Johnson probably stands very little show in Ohio. A prominent Ohio Democrat remarks: "If every Republican in the state were to go on a trip to Europe and stay there throughout the campaign the Tom Johnson ticket would be defeated by Democrats."

The war between Turkey and Bulgaria is still confined to the first column, front page of the newspapers. If they'd fight until nothing was left of them nobody in this neck of the woods would miss them.

The King of Italy is evidently an up-to-date fellow. He inspects and directs the movement of troops from a motor car, and uses the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy for transmitting messages.

CHALLENGE FROM LANG BROS.

OFFER TO REFUND MONEY IF
DR. HOWARD'S SPECIFIC WILL NOT CURE ANY CASE OF CONSTIPATION OR DYSPEPSIA.

Lang Bros. are seeking the worst case of dyspepsia or constipation in Paducah or vicinity to test Dr. Howard's new specific for the cure of those diseases.

So confident are they that this remarkable medicine will effect a lasting cure in a short time, that they offer to refund the money should it not be successful.

In order to secure the quickest possible introduction Lang Bros. will sell a regular fifty cent package of this medicine at half price, 25 cents.

This specific of Dr. Howard's will cure sick headache, dizzy feelings, constipation, dyspepsia, and all forms of malaria and liver trouble. It does not simply give relief for a time; it makes permanent and complete cures.

It will regulate the bowels, tone up the whole intestinal tract, give you an appetite, make food taste good and digest well, and increase vigor. Joy and happiness will take the place of that "don't care whether I live or die feeling."

Take advantage of Lang Bros. challenge and secure a bottle of Dr. Howard's specific at half price, with their personal guarantee to refund your money if it does not help you.

There is no need of suffering with constipation, dyspepsia, or liver disease when you can get sixty doses of a scientific medicine for their cure like Dr. Howard's specific for the small sum of 25 cents.

HAS DECIDED

ATTORNEY L. K. TAYLOR WILL RUN INDEPENDENTLY.

Attorney L. K. Taylor stated this afternoon that he did not intend to carry his election contest against Attorney John G. Lovett any further as he would now go into the election and fight it out.

"I have not spoken to my attorneys in regard to an appeal, but am sure I will not take one," he stated. "I will have my name entered on the ballot under an independent device and think I will have the support of all the Democrats in this county, and some in Marshall also. There are about 1,500 Democratic voters in Marshall and 3,000 in McCracken. My name has been endorsed by the Democrats in this county and Mr. Lovett by the Democrats in Marshall."

"I will go to Benton Monday and will tell my friends a few things and will invite Mr. Lovett to mount the stump and divide time with me. I intend to make this an interesting race and will not give up."

Mr. Taylor further states that he intended to go into his electioneering with all his energy and was confident of winning out. He said he might carry his fight further in the courts but did not deem it worth his while.

TENNIS SOON TO BE REVIVED
—The Y. M. C. A. tennis courts on Court street near Seventh, are being scraped and put in shape for the fall tennis season. Considerable interest has revived in the game with the cool weather, and it is promised to be very popular for the next two months. Quite a number of young women belong to the Y. M. C. A. tennis club and will use the courts extensively this fall.

Inez Smith, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, of 1527 Thistle street, is ill from fever.

PECULIAR CASE

Applicant for Army Service
Suspected Deserter.

Lee Thompson, of Lola, Livingston County. Says He is the Wrong Man.

Major Robert D. Read arrived from Louisville last evening to enlist three recruits received in the local United States army recruiting office, and found that one, Lee Thompson, of Lola, Livingston county, had the same name as that of a man reported at the war department at Washington as a deserter and held up his case for investigation.

Mr. Thompson claims previous service but says he was honorably discharged last January, after serving six years, first with troop K and later with troop D of the First United States cavalry. He claims to have served in the Philippines and to have been discharged at Angel Island January 29. He has lost the papers, however, dismissing him.

The Lee Thompson wanted as a deserter ran away from the Twenty-seventh company of Coast Shore service, August 2. Major Read telegraphed to Washington for a description of the man, and in the meantime the Lee Thompson applying here for admission to the army is waiting until the description arrives. It is not believed by Private Lighttower who is in charge of the office here that he is the same man. At any rate he is making no effort to get away.

FOUND OUT

WHAT A MOTHER FOUND OUT ABOUT FOOD.

A mother found out what a change of food can do for a whole family, from the nursing baby to the adults, in this way: "Twice during the summer months my baby was taken violently ill and was very slow getting over the attacks. His former diet of cow's milk alone ceased to agree with him and I combined it with an expensive infant's food but he soon became very much constipated. Then I shifted to Grape Nuts food and found that this was just what baby needed, adding to his milk after softening in hot water. Baby has thrived upon this food and is now healthy and strong and chubby as any mother could ask which you know is saying a good deal. "It did not take me long to find out that a saucer of Grape Nuts and cream is just what is needed by the tired nervous mother and I have also proved to my own satisfaction that when the children are old enough to chew Grape Nuts it is far better for them than oatmeal or any other mushy foods for it develops their teeth and helps their digestion and their minds seem much brighter and more active too. "Truly here is a wonderful food and one for the whole family."

Rich Mexican Mines May Be Indication of Value of Their Property.

A number of Paducah people are encouraged over reports from Oaxaca, Mexico, over the gold discoveries there, because several Paducahans are interested in that section of the country.

The gold discoveries are said to be the richest of recent years, and there is great excitement in that part of the country over them. The section of country is near the southern border of Mexico. Messrs. E. P. Gilson, F. E. Jack, Joseph L. Friedman and W. F. Paxton, of the city, own 5,000 acres of land within seventy-five miles of the big gold deposit just discovered, and Mr. Gilson is interested in some mines about ten or twelve miles from the scene of the present discoveries and excitement. As yet no steps have been taken to develop the resources of the land owned by the Paducah people.

GOOD WORK.

DONE DAILY IN PADUCAH. MANY CITIZENS TELL OF IT.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Paducah still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had than the experience of friends and neighbors. Read this case:

T. W. Woodson, of 49 South Ninth street, painter employed with C. D. Warren, 408 1/2 Broadway says: "Every painter is more or less troubled with his kidneys on account of the nature of his work. We all know what causes it, but none how to remove it is the mystery. I tried lots of medicine and different schemes, but until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at DuBois and Co.'s drug store and took a course of the treatment I met with very different success. They cured the last attack."

JURORS FRIGHTENED

Attempts Made to Burn Their Boarding House.

Powers was Sentenced Within Three Hours After Conviction, Said to Be Illegal.

GROUND FOR NEW TRIAL

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 1.—The attorneys for Caleb Powers, given a death sentence at Georgetown Saturday for alleged conspiracy to murder Senator William Goebel, claim that the jury trying Powers was frightened into giving the defendant the extreme penalty by the officers guarding it, saying that friends of Powers had made three attempts to burn the boarding house in which the jury was located in a room to sleep.

One of the jurors said here today that deputy sheriff Linsby told the members of the jury how near they came to being burned up and said that Deputy Robinson had been stationed at the rear of the house to stand picket during the night until the trial was over. Jurymen Wilson said that the jury was in great danger fear of being cremated and all were delighted when the trial was over.

The attorneys for the defense say if there was an attempt made to burn the boarding house it was by friends of the prosecution to scare the jury into making a verdict for hanging Powers. They heard of the affair too late to offer it as a reason for a new trial, but the matter will be urged before the court of appeals in order to secure a new trial. The impression appears to be that Powers will be hanged, the higher court refusing to interfere, in which case the governor will fix the day of execution.

Another one of the grounds for a new trial will be that Judge Robbins sentenced Powers within three hours after he was convicted. He says the law requires that the prisoner be sentenced before the expiration of the special term, but since the term did not expire until the middle of this week the passing of the sentence at that time as illegal.

MAYFIELD WON.

BEAT THE PADUCAH BOYS BY A NARROW MARGIN.

The Mayfield baseball club defeated the "Lax Fox" team here at Wallace park yesterday afternoon by a score of 6 to 4. Dicke and Sherrer pitched for Paducah and Andrecht caught while Dorems, a southpaw, and Warren were the battery for Mayfield. The game was closely played, Mayfield making but one earned run. The errors on both sides let in the scores. The attendance was small.

The "Lax Fox" team will probably arrange another game with the Mayfield boys for some date in the near future. The Mayfield boys put up a snappy game and will be hard to defeat.

PLANTIFF WON.

HE WAS AWARDED WAGES CLAIMED FROM BOAT.

U. S. Commissioner Armour Gardner has decided the case of George Bronson against the steamer Charles ton in favor of the plaintiff.

Bronson went to work for the steam boat officers as a deck hand and while at Joppa went away for a short time when he was not needed on the boat to get a shave. He claims on his return the officers drove him off the boat and would not pay him $5 due him. Bronson went to court and secured judgment for that amount. This case had been left open from the last week, the entire evidence not having been concluded until yesterday.

OUTING SPOTS IN THE NORTHWEST

There are many places in the country of the Northern Pacific, some inexpensive, others better and more expensive, where one can spend the summer days pleasantly and healthfully. Among these are Walker in the Leech lake country, and Detroit and Battle Lake in the Lake Park region in Minnesota; Eaton's ranch, near Medora, N. D.; Hunter's Hot Springs in the Yellowstone valley, and Missoula and the Bitter-root valley in Montana; Lakes Pend d'Oreille and Cour d'Alene, Idaho; North Yakima in Eastern Washington, and Green River Hot Springs in the Cascades; Tacoma, Seattle, Port Townsend, Port Angeles and Victoria on Puget Sound, and many places along the Columbia river and on the Pacific Ocean from Portland as a center.

Those east of the Mississippi who wish a decided change should go to the Rockies or the Puget Sound and Columbia river and sea coast country. We can only hint at these things here, but write us giving particulars as near as you can, and we will try to give you the needed information to enable you to find what you want. And don't forget that Yellowstone Park is the chief of all tourist shrines.

LAZARRE

... By ...
MARY HARTWELL CATHERWOOD

(Based Upon the Mystery Surrounding the Fate of the Dauphin, Son of Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette)

Copyright, 1901, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

There should be a colossal mother
going about the world to turn men over her lap and give them the slipper. They pine for it.

Am I helping forward the general
good, or am I only suffering nature's punishment?

A woman can fasten the bonds of habit on a man, giving him food from her table, hourly strengthening his care for her. By merely putting herself before him every day she makes him think of her. What chance has an exiled woman against the fearful odds of daily life?

Yet sometimes I think I can wait a thousand years. In sun and snow, in wind and dust, a woman waits. If she stretched her hand and said
"Come," who could despise her so much as she would despise herself?

What is so cruel as a man? How after hours, day after day, year after year, he presses the iron spike of silence in.

Coward to let me suffer such anguish!

Is it because I kissed you? That was the highest act of my life! I groped down the black stairs of the Tuileries blinded by light. Why are the natural things called wrong and the unnatural ones just?

Is it because I said I would come to you some time? This is what I meant—that I should give me no jealous pang to think of another woman's head on your breast; that there is a wedding which appearances cannot touch.

No, I never would—I never would seek you, though sometimes the horror of doing without you turns into reproach. What is he doing? He may need me, and I am letting his life slip away. Am I cheating us both of what could have harmed no one?

Is it not that usage is broken off.
Yet if you were to come I would punish you for coming!

Fine, heroic days I tell myself we are marching to meet each other. If the day has been particularly hard I say,
"Perhaps I have carried his load, too,
and he marches lighter."

You have faults, no doubt, but the only one I could not pardon would be your saying "I repent!"

The instinct to conceal defeat and pain is so strong in me that I would have my heart out not rather than own it ached. Yet many women carry all before them by a little judicious warning and rebellion.

I never believe in your unfaith. If you brought a wife and showed her to me I should be sorry for her and still not believe in your unfaith.

Louis, I have been falling down flat and crawling the ground. Now I am up again. It didn't hurt.

It is the old German fairy story.
Every day gold must be spun out of straw. How big the pile of straw looks every morning, and how little the handful of gold every night!

This is the Indiana territory that I dreaded as a black girl in a gray valley.

I love the garden and I love to hoe
the Indian corn. It springs so clean from the sod and is a miracle of growth. After the stalks are around my knees they are soon around my shoulders. The broad leaves have a fragrance and the silk is sweet as violets.

We wash our clothes in the river.
Women who hoe corn, dig in a garden
and wash clothes earn the wholesome bread of life.

Today Paul brought the first blue-
bells of spring and put them in water for me. They were buds, and when they bloomed out he said, "God has blessed these flowers."

We have to nurse the sick. The goodness of these pioneer women is unfailing. It is like the great and kind friendship of the De Chateaus.
They help me take care of Cousin Philippe.

Paul meditated today: "I don't want to hurt the Father's feelings. I don't want to say he was greedy and made a better place for himself in heaven than he made for us down here. Is it nicer just because he is there?"

His prayer: "God bless my father and mother and Ernestine. God keep my father and mother and Ernestine.
And keep my mother with me day and night, dressed and undressed! God keep together all that love each other."

When he is a man I am going to tell him, and say: "But I have built my house, not wrecked it. I have been yours, not love's."

He tells me such stories as this:
"Once upon a time there was such a loving angel came down. And they ran a string through his stomach and hung him on the wall. He never whined a bit."

The people in this country, which is called free, are nearly all bound. Those who lack money, as we do, cannot go where they please or live as they would live. Is that freedom?

On a cool autumn night, when the fire crackles, the ten children of the settlement, fighting or agreeing, come running from their houses like hens.
We sit on the floor in front of the hearth, and I suffer the often repeated martynology of the "Fire Pig." This tale, invented once as fast as I could talk, I have been doomed to repeat until I dread the shades of evening.

The children hunch their heads together; their lips part as soon as I begin to say:

Do you see that glowing spot in the heart of the coals? That is the house of the Fire Pig. One day the Fire Pig found he had no more corn, and he was very hungry. So he jumped out of his house and ran down the road
till he came to a farmer's field.

"Good morning, Mr. Farmer," said
the little pig. "Have you any corn
for me today?"

"Why, who are you?" said the farmer.

"I'm a little Fire Pig."

"No, I haven't any corn for a Fire Pig."

The pig ran on till he came to another farmer's field.

"Good morning, Mr. Farmer. Have you any corn for me today?"

"Who are you?" said the farmer.

"Oh, I'm the little Fire Pig."

"I don't know," said the farmer. "I would give you a great bagful if you could kill the snake which comes every night and steals my cattle."

The pig thought, "How can I kill that snake?" But he was so hungry

Do you see that glowing spot in the heart of the coals?

he knew he would starve without corn,
so he said he would try. The farmer told him to go down in the field, where the snake came gliding at night with its head reared high in air. The pig went down in the meadow, and the farmer saw was a sheep.

"Baa!" said the sheep. That was its way of saying "How do you do?
Who are you?"

"I'm the little Fire Pig."

"What are you doing here?"

"I've come to kill the great snake
that eats the farmer's cattle."

"I'm very glad," said the sheep, "for it takes my lamb. How are you going to kill it?"

"I don't know," said the pig. "Can't you help me?"

"I'll give you some of my wool."

The pig thanked the sheep and went a little farther and met a horse. "Hee-e-e-e!" said the horse. That was his way of saying "How do you do?
Who are you?"

"I'm the little Fire Pig."

There is a very old woman among the settlers whom they call Granny.
We often sit together. She cannot get a good edge between her nose and chin when she drinks, and has forgotten she ever had teeth. She does not expect much, but there is one right she contends for, and that is the right of ironing her cap by stretching it over her knee. When I have lived in this settlement long enough my nose and chin may come together and I shall forget my teeth. But this much I will exact of fate—my cap shall be ironed.
I will not—I will not iron it by stretching it over my knee.

Count de Chamont would be angry
if he saw me learning to weave, for instance. You would not be angry. That makes a difference between you as men which I feel, but cannot explain.

We speak English with our neighbors. Paul, who is to be an American, must learn his language well. I have taught him to read and write. I have taught him the history of his family and of his father's country. His head is as high as my breast. When will my head be as high as his breast?

Skenebank loves you as a young superior brother. I have often wondered what he thought about when he went quietly around at your heels. You told me he had killed and scalped, and in spite of education was as ready to kill and scalp again as any white man is
for war.

I dread him like a toad, and wish him to keep on his side of the walk. He is always with you, and no doubt silently urges, "Come back to the wigwag
that nourished you!"

Am I mistaken? Are we moving farther and farther apart instead of approaching each other? Oh, Louis, does this road lead to nothing?

I am glad I gave you that key. It was given thoughtlessly, when I was in a bubble of joy. But if you have kept it, it speaks to you every day.

Sophie Salut-Michel told me man
sometimes piles all his tokens in a retrospective heap and says, "Who the deuce gave me this or that?"

Sophie's father used to be so enraged at his wife and daughter because he could not restore their lost comforts. But this is really a better disposition than a mean subservience
to misfortune.

The children love to have me dance gavots for them. Some of their mothers consider it levity. Still they feel the need of a little levity themselves.

We had a great festival when the wild roses were fully in bloom. The prairie is called a mile square, and wherever a plow has not struck, acres of wild roses grow. They hedge us from the woods like a parapet edging a court. These volunteers are very thorny, bearing tender claws to protect themselves with. But I am nimble with my scissors.

We took the Jordan oxen, a meek pair that have broken ad for the colony, and twined them with garlands of wild roses. Around and around their bodies the long ropes were wound, their master standing by with his goad. That we wound also, and covered his hat with roses. The huge oxen swayed aside, looking ashamed of themselves. And when their tails were ornamented with a bunch at the tip they switched these pathetically.
Still even an ox loves festivity, whether he owns to it or not. We made a procession, child behind child, each bearing on his head all the roses he could carry, the two oxen walking tandem, led by their master in front.

Everybody came out and laughed. It was a beautiful sight, and cheered us, though we gave it no name except the procession of roses.

Often when I open my eyes at dawn
I hear music far off that makes my heart swell. It is the waking dream of a king marching with drums and hugles. While I am dressing I hum,
"Oh, Richard, oh, my king!"
Louis! Louis! Louis!

I cannot—I cannot keep it down!
How can I hold still that righteousness
may be done through me, when I love—love—love—when I clutch my fists and walk on my knees—

I am a wicked woman! What is all this sweet pretense of duty! It covers the hypocrite that loves—that starves—
that cries: "My king! My king!"

Strike me! Drive me within bounds!
This long repression—years, years of waiting—for what? For more waiting! It is driving me mad!

You have the key.
I have nothing!

CHAPTER XXVIII.

MY God! What had she seen in me to love? I sat up and held the book against my bosom. Its cry out of her past filled the world from horizon to horizon. I could not see her again until I had conquered myself.

So I dressed and went silently downstairs. The pawnees were stirring in the kitchen. I got some bread and meat from them and also some grain for the horse, then mounted and rode to the river.

The ferryman lived near the old stockade. Some time always passed after he saw the signals before the deliberate Frenchman responded. I led my horse upon the unwieldy craft propelled by two huge oars which the ferryman managed, running from one to another according to the swing of the current. It was broad day when we reached the other shore, one of those days, gray overhead, when moisture breaks upward through the ground instead of descending. Many light clouds flitted under the grayness.
The grass showed with a kind of green
blush through its old brown fleece.

The trail along the Fox river led over rolling land, dipping into coves and rising over hills. The prospect was so large, with a ridge running along in the distance and open country spreading away on the other side, that I often turned to my saddle and looked back over the half wooded trail. I thought

I saw a figure walking a long way behind me and, being alone, tried to discern what it was. But under that gray sky nothing was sharply defined. I rode on thinking of the book in the bosom of my coat.

It was certain I was not to marry.
And being without breakfast and un-stimulated by the sky, I began to think also what unstable material I had taken in hand when I undertook to work with Indians. Instinctively I knew then what a young southern statesman named Jefferson Davis, whom I first met as a commandant of the fort at Green Bay, afterward told me in Washington, "No commonwealth
in a republic will stand with interests apart from the federated whole." White men who have exclaimed from the beginning against the injustice done the red man, and who keep on playing and exterminating him, made a federated whole with interests apart
from his.

Again when I looked back I saw the figure, but it was afoot and I soon lost it in a cove.

My house had been left undisturbed
by hunters and Indians through the winter. I tied the horse to a gallery post and unfurnished the door. A pile of refuse timbers offered wood for a fire, and I carried in several loads of it and lighted the virgin chimney.

I thought I saw a figure walking a long way behind.

Then I brought water from the spring
and ate breakfast, sitting before the fire and thinking a little wearily and bitterly of my prospect in life.

Having fed my horse, I covered the fire, leaving a good store of fuel by the hearth, and rode away toward the Meunier and Winnebago lands.

The day was a hard one, and when I came back toward nightfall I was glad to stop with the officers of the stockade and share their mess.

"You look fagged," said one of them.
"The horse paths are heavy," I answered, "and I have been as far as the Indian lands."

I had been as far as that remote time
when Eagle was not a cloud mother.
To cross the river and see her smiling
in meaningless happiness seemed more than I could do.

Yet she might notice my absence.
We had been housed together ever since she had discovered me. Our walks and rides, our fireside talks and evening diversions were never separate. At Pierre Grignon's the family flocked in companies. When the pad-locked book sent me out of the house
I forgot that she was used to my presence and might be disturbed by an absence no one could explain.

"The first sailing vessel is in from the straits," said the lieutenant.

"Yes, I saw her come to anchor as I rode out this morning."

"She brought a passenger."

"Anybody of importance?"

"At first blush, no. At second blush,
yes."

"Why 'no' at first blush?"

"Because he is only a priest."

"Only a priest, haughty officer! Are civilians and churchmen dirt under army feet?"

The lieutenant grinned.

"When you see a missionary priest landing to confess a lot of Canadians
he doesn't seem quite so important as a prelate from Ghent, for instance."

"Is this passenger a prelate from Ghent?"

"That is where the second blush comes in. He is."

"How do you know?"

"I saw him and talked with him."

"What is he doing in Green Bay?"

"Looking at the country. He was inquiring for you."

"For me?"

"Yes."

"What could a prelate from Ghent
want with me?"

"Says he wants to make inquiries
about the native tribes."

"And he is a native tribes?"

"Naturally. But not until he asked me if you were here."

"He mentioned my name?"

"Yes. He wanted to see you. You'll not have to step out of your way to gratify him."

"From that I infer there is a new face at Pierre Grignon's."

"Your inference is correct. The Grignons always lodge the

FREE TRIPS TO ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR.
ALL EXPENSES OF THE 120 MOST POPULAR SCHOOL TEACHERS IN THE STATE PAID.

member of faculty of academy, college or university, medical, dental or theological institution, protestant or catholic denominational school, is eligible to election. Members of the Educational Exhibit Committee alone excepted.

Attention each every school child in the State will be able to cast at least one vote for his or her favorite teacher. But the voting will not be confined to school children.

PAIDMENTS OF PUPILS OR ANY OF THEIR FRIENDS MAY VOTE. The purpose of the Association being to elect the most popular school teacher in each county, as so considered by the public generally, as well as by the school children. Ballots contain ten spaces, so pupils of ten pupils may be arranged and each giving ten cents be credited with his or her vote. If one person desires to cast ten votes, it may be done by writing his or her name in one of the spaces and remitting one dollar. It is not required that the name of the person voting be given at all. All of the spaces for voters' names may be left blank. The Association wants, however, to enroll in the Kentucky Building at St. Louis next year the name of every child who cast one or more votes in the contest.

ALL EXPENSES OF THE TEACHERS WILL BE PAID BY THE ASSOCIATION. This will include railroad transportation from Louisville to St. Louis and return, board at one of the best hotels in the city for six days and admission to the exposition grounds for six days.

THREE PARTIES WILL BE MADE UP FROM THE MOST POPULAR TEACHERS to make the trip more profitable and enjoyable. Each of these parties will consist of forty teachers, casting the largest total number of votes being granted the distinction of sending two teachers.

ANY NUMBER OF BALLOTS MAY BE CAST AT ONE TIME. There is no limit. The more dollars sent in for any one teacher the more votes he or she will be credited with.

ONE DOLLAR CASTS TEN VOTES; TWO DOLLARS CASTS TWENTY VOTES; THREE DOLLARS CASTS THIRTY VOTES; FOUR DOLLARS CASTS FORTY VOTES; FIVE DOLLARS CASTS FIFTY VOTES; TEN DOLLARS CASTS A HUNDRED VOTES; ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS CASTS ONE THOUSAND VOTES.

THE STANDING OF THE CONTENDERS WILL BE PRINTED FREQUENTLY in each county to show his or her friends how the race is being run. Begin voting now for your favorite school teacher. The votes will be counted under the supervision of the Educational Exhibit Committee of the Association. The personnel of this committee is as follows: Prof. H. G. Brownell, Louisville, Chairman; Prof. H. V. McChesney, Frankfort; Prof. R. P. Halleck, Louisville; Prof. W. H. Bartholomew, Louisville; Prof. F. Paul Anderson, Lexington; Dr. Chase Palmer, Danville; President William D. Williams, Jackson; Dr. W. G. Frost, Berea; Dr. B. B. Huntton, Louisville; Dr. E. Y. Mullins, Louisville; Dr. Arthur Vager, Georgetown; Superintendent M. A. Cassidy, Lexington; Superintendent S. L. Frigger, Frankfort; Prof. C. J. Crabbe, Ashland; Prof. McHenry Rhoads, Owensboro; Prof. T. S. Alley, Bellevue; Prof. C. C. Cherry, Bowling Green; Prof. Elmer Spencer, Louisville; Miss Apple & Hill, Louisville; Mrs. Emily R. Bracken, Louisville; and Mrs. M. H. Tucker, Louisville. Members of the Educational Committee are not eligible to election in this contest.

REMEMBER EVERY COUNTY ELECTS ITS OWN FAVORITE TEACHER. Competition between counties only applies to the race for the 120 trips to the county, outside of Jefferson, casting the largest total number of votes being granted the distinction of sending two teachers.

The result will be announced in every paper in the state, and, in addition to this, a congratulatory message will go to the teacher elected in each county. Later the details of the trip will be arranged, each teacher chosen being given the privilege of selecting the month—June, July or August, 1904—in which he or she wants to make the trip.

POLICE NOTES

Very Little of Interest Has Happened.

No Robberies Reported and Few Arrests Made.

James Wickers, in jail at Mayfield for felony, broke jail some time last night and at last accounts had not been caught. The police here were notified to be on the lookout for him.

Blue and red striped waists were poked up in Mechanicsburg last night and may be secured at police headquarters by the owner.

A man named Evans, at Third and Adams, reported to the police today that his watch has been lost of stolen and a description was furnished but nothing has been heard of it.

The work of rebuilding the city hall steps will be completed in a day or two longer. It is being pushed by the workmen, who have closed the north side of the hall entirely temporarily.

A woman named Ada Ford, of 318 Norton street, reported to the police this morning that last night a colored woman applied to her for lodging and she gave it to her. During the night the stranger is alleged to have damped with a $10 and a $5 bill, leaving four silver dollars. The police have a description of her but have not been able to find her.

CONFEDERATE MEETING.

Miss Lizzie Williamson returned to Oregon, Ky., today after a visit in the city.

Theatrical Notes.

Gowns of cost and beauty are now considered as much importance to a successful dramatic production as the cast or scenery. The costuming of the ladies in Dora Thorne to be seen here tonight is said to be out of the ordinary, many gowns being worn that are direct importations.

The well known dramatist, Henry Belmar, has evolved a play of unusual beauty and strength from the popular novel, Dora Thorne. Every reader of the book knows its peculiar intense heart interest and the dramatization preserves all the elements of a permanent theatrical success. At The Kentucky tonight.

The new vaudeville attraction at Wallace park pleased a good crowd last night notwithstanding the inclement weather. An entirely new change of program will be offered tonight and many new features will be on the program. The great comedy success entitled "A Trip to Paris" will be introduced by the entire company.

"Mr. Jolly of Joliet" was enjoyed at The Kentucky theater last evening by a fairly large crowd. It is a musical comedy of reputation, and was here last season. This year it is better than ever having a complete company of pretty girls and clever people, lead by Edward Garvie, a comedian of evident ability. The music and dialogue are tuneful and amusing, the costumes stunning and the audience seems to enjoy the performance very much. It was the first attraction of the season for the Kentucky.

NEW ROUTE OPENED

Rural Free Delivery Begins on No. 4.

Carrier Ed Francis Starts on His First Trip Over the New Route.

IT COVERS SIXTEEN MILES

Today McCracken county's fourth rural free delivery route was established and the carrier, Mr. Ed Francis, started on his first trip.

The route is No. 4, and goes out the Benton road nearly to the county line at Seale, Marshall county, and returns over the same road, traversing quite a populous and important section.

Mr. Ed Francis is a son of Mr. John Francis, and the latter is substitute. He has not yet secured his wagon, but will do so as soon as possible.

These free delivery routes have done a great deal to build up the county and insure better roads. They have facilitated business to a remarkable extent.

The new route commenced today is as follows: South to Tyler, southeast to Taylor's Corners, north to school No. 4, east to Brookshire, west to the gravel pike, east to Epperson Station road, northwest to Jones Corners, south to the gravel pike, and northwest to Paducah.

The length is 20 3/4 miles, area covered sixteen square miles, 116 houses on the route, and 522 people served.

It is hoped to secure at least two more routes shortly.

Y. M. C. A. HEADQUARTERS

THEY ARE BEING PUT IN SHAPE FOR ANNUAL MEETING.

The Y. M. C. A. building is being cleaned and freshened in preparation for the annual meeting of the association Thursday evening. New linoleum will be put on the lobby, office and bath rooms. HAYES' BEECHWOOD EMULSO-HYPO WITH IRON

Makes Fat, Strength, Blood, Bone and Muscle.

If you are tired, broken down, despondent, worn out, pale, losing flesh, have no energy, don't feel like arising in the morning for the day's work, you should take a bottle of this wonderful medicine.

BOGOTA, MISS., March 19, 1903.

Gentlemen: It affords me little pleasure to testify to the wonderful properties of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, when the physicians said that I could not get well. After taking six or eight bottles I weighed 140 pounds. That has been ten years and I am still living in fine health. Wishing you success in its sale, I am, yours truly, FRED S. HAWSON.

ARLINGTON, KY., March 18, 1903.

Gentlemen: Having used Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron I cannot commend it too highly to you as a tonic, flesh builder and to give strength, blood and muscle. It is superior to any preparation of which I have any knowledge. I take pleasure in recommending it. Yours truly, R. W. NAWSON.

Pastor M. E. Church, South.

Read what the editor of the Southerner, Okolona, Miss., says:

Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. In 1901 my mother commenced taking Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, when the doctors said her lungs were so badly involved that she would not likely be alive but a few weeks. It improved her so rapidly that she was soon in good health for one of her years. I wish you the success you desire with your Beechwood Emulso-Hypo. Yours truly, AARON T. DAVIS.

Suffered six years with a cough that threatened Consumption. Entirely cured by Beechwood Emulso-Hypo.

MAYFIELD, KY., May 20, 1903.

Shoffner-Hayes Medicine Co., Paducah, Ky. Dear Sirs, I suffered for six years with a cough that threatened Consumption. This spring I took six bottles of Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo and it cured my cough, and I think I am entirely well. Yours truly, MISS W. H. NEWARK.
